Seafood Seller: A Small Business with a Big Heart

It's no secret that small businesses are the backbone of America, and we are lucky to have many extraordinary entrepreneurs that go above and beyond in their support of our community.

Today, we proudly shine the spotlight on Jimmy Stoltz, owner of Seafood Seller in Crystal River, whose heartfelt contributions have made a significant impact on local organizations and individuals in need.

Jimmy's commitment to giving back to his community has been evident throughout the years. He has continuously gone above and beyond to support local initiatives and lend a helping hand to those facing challenges.

Most recently, his immense generosity was revealed as news broke that he made a substantial donation to a fundraiser benefitting the family of Citrus County School Resource Officer Andy Lahera, who was seriously injured while directing traffic after a recent high school graduation.

The selflessness displayed by Jimmy and Seafood Seller is a testament to the power of compassion and the genuine care that small business owners can have for their community. It is truly heartwarming to witness their commitment to supporting their fellow neighbors in times of need.

Beyond the recent donation,

Jimmy has been actively involved in various community-driven events and programs. From sponsoring local organizations to participating in charity drives, he has consistently shown that the success of his business is intertwined with the prosperity of the community he calls home.

He understands that when a community thrives, so does its small businesses.

The impact of small businesses like Seafood Seller cannot be overstated. They provide more than just goods and services; they offer a personal touch and a sense of belonging that larger establishments often struggle to match.

Jimmy's dedication to this community embodies the true spirit of small business, reminding us all that supporting local enterprises is vital for the growth and well-being of our community.

As a testament to the spirit of community solidarity, we invite you to join us in showing #LoveForLahera at the upcoming BBQ fundraiser created and organized by another incredible local businessman that never turns away from a mission that touches his heart, Leon McClellan with M&B Dairy.

To place donate or inquire about the #LoveForLahera BBQ fundraiser, please email loveforlahera@gmail.com.

Every contribution, no matter how big or small, will go a long way in helping Deputy Lahera and his family as they navigate their long road to recovery.

We would also be remiss if we did not acknowledge the incredible number of businesses and individuals that have donated and supported this fundraiser. The donations are pouring in at a rate that is difficult to keep track of, but we look forward to recognizing the members that have been involved at a later date, if possible.

Let us stand united in recognizing and celebrating small businesses like Seafood Seller and the incredible individuals behind them. Their philanthropic endeavors remind us that together, we can create a thriving and compassionate community for everyone to enjoy.
