Chamber Member Spotlight:

Boulerice Roofing Helps Give Army Veteran a New Lease on Life

This week we are proud to shine a light on one of our outstanding Chamber members who turned a neighbor's need into an opportunity to serve.

When 78-year-old Army veteran Carol Bowers, who is legally blind and recovering from a heart attack, found herself living under a severely damaged roof with no way to repair it, she turned to prayer.

That prayer was answered by the generosity of our community and the hands-on help of Boulerice Roofing.

Carol has lived in her Beverly Hills home since 1997. After a large tree limb fell and broke through her roof, the damage became overwhelming. Rain-water poured into her closet during storms, and she could see daylight through the ceiling.

With no family nearby and limited income, she felt forgotten and alone.

That changed when Boulerice Roofing stepped in with compassion and action.

Boulerice Roofing donated its time, materials, and expertise to give Carol a brand-new roof at no cost. What might have seemed like a routine job to some meant everything to her.

Carol shared her gratitude simply and beautifully. She said, "God bless these people."

Because of this generous act, Carol now feels safe, supported, and seen. Her home is whole again, and so is her spirit.

We are proud to celebrate Boulerice Roofing for being more than a business. They are neighbors, they are problem solvers, and they are an incredible example of the kind of heart that makes Citrus County so special.

Thank you, Boulerice Roofing, for reminding us what it means to truly care.
