

SBA issues PPP Loan Forgiveness Instructions

Also: PPP applications still being accepted

The Small Business Administration has issued the Loan Forgiveness Application form for the popular Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). If you have been approved for this loan and have not already received this application, it should be coming soon. The SBA will forgive the PPP loans if all employees are kept on the payroll for eight weeks and the money is used for payroll, rent, mortgage interest, or utilities.

And if your business has not already applied for this popular loan, the SBA is still accepting applications. The PPP is a loan designed to provide a direct incentive for small businesses to keep their workers on the payroll. This program, which quickly ran out of funds when it first started in March, was re-funded by Congress and began accepting applications again on April 27. And as the State of Florida has now fully instituted Phase 1 of Governor DeSantis' Safe, Smart, Step-by-Step plan to reopen our economy, the Chamber reminds everyone to be safe and continue to follow the proper CDC and EPA guidelines so that we may continue to continually reduce our cases of COVID-19.
