

Leadership Citrus Board of Governors

Application: Board Member

(Must be a graduate of the program)

Applications are accepted on a continuing basis and are held on file until a position comes open. If you are selected to join the board, you will be contacted by the Chair.

The Board of Governors meets monthly to make decisions, set policy, solve problems, and plan and evaluate the progress of the Leadership Citrus program events and curriculum. In addition to attending meetings, this position includes planning and facilitating classes, helping plan events and community outreach.

Members are appointed for an open term, with the expectation of serving at least 2 years.

Any questions may be directed to Eric Head, Chair, via e-mail at eric.head@citruslibraries.org

All applications must be submitted via email to leadershipcitrus@citruschamber.com
